Cecilia Ann Hogan Shinnick

March 30, 1931 - March 23, 2026

Cecilia Ann Hogan Shinnick (née Missel), age 94, of Hillsboro, Missouri, passed away on Monday, March 23, 2026, in Festus. She was born March 30, 1931, in St. Louis, Missouri, the daughter of the late Frank Joseph Missel and the late Mary Cecilia Missel (née Lause). Cecilia and her husband Edward moved to Hillsboro in 1960, where they ran a small farm just north of town. They grew their own food, butchered their own meat, and steadily built onto their home to make room for their growing family. A woman of many talents, Cecilia was a pianist, artist, seamstress, and a loving mother to 13 children, grandmother to 33, and great-grandmother to 59. She was a devoted follower of Christ and spent many years as a Ladies Auxiliary member and quilter with the Knights of Columbus in Hillsboro. She was also a longtime member of Good Shepherd Parish. Cecilia was always busy caring for children, tending her garden, canning fruits and vegetables, creating art and music, and helping anyone in need. She instilled in her children the value of hard work and the importance of service to others. Well into her 90s, she continued volunteering her time and talents, including sewing clothes for families in need in Haiti. Entrepreneurial and creative, she ran her own wedding cake business in Hillsboro for many years and made her own wine, which she enjoyed throughout her life. She loved quilting, sewing, puzzles, movies, crafting dollhouses and miniatures, and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. After losing her husband Edward, the father of her 13 children, in 1978, Cecilia supported herself and her family with strength and resilience. She later remarried Richard Shinnick Jr., gaining a stepdaughter through this loving union. She found joy in the smallest things and remained grateful for every day God gave her. Her love of the arts, appreciation of life, and unwavering faith became part of the legacy she passed down to the generations that followed. Cecilia's final days were spent reminiscing about good times, surrounded by a constant stream of family and friends. She passed peacefully at Mercy Jefferson, one week before her 95th birthday. She leaves behind a rich legacy, a life story filled with love, creativity, faith, and generosity.

It was always so nice to visit with you in the summers. You shared some great stories with us that we will always cherish. You had the best fishing pond in the world and we will miss your stories, and old time movies you would put on to watch with the kids when they weren't fishing. You were an extraordinary and talented person. We will always love you and the memories we shared.

Aunt Celie was very creative in everything she did, she was my God mother and would give me little gifts..my favorite gift she have me was an Easter Egg that was made out of sugar.. had an Easter scene inside, I kept that up high to where it wouldn't break.. Lasted me a long time until one day I bumped it and broke.. If I could see her again, I would tell her that I loved her as much as I loved my own mom... Yes she was a Saint in my Eyes... Love, Nancy Ann
