“ It is hard to realize that she has left us. This photo is what I remember of her. Always smiling, a fun loving, warm and generous soul. I will miss you, my dear cousin. Love and my most sincere condolences to your family.

“ Our daughter Lela loved Carrie like her other Grandmas in her life. Carrie always had a treat and a bag of goodies for her little neighbor next door. Thank you for taking trips with us to McDonald's, Goodwill, and to "Chili Dinners" at her school. Carrie was a big part of our lives and we were blessed to know her as a friend, a "Grandma," and as a loving neighbor.

Love,
The Malone Family (Brian, Cathy, & Lela)

“ I met Carol years ago as she was Judy Marsh's sister. We all played bingo with her mom & dad at the elks. Got to see her at weddings, Birthdays and special times!! We have shared laughs & tears of sorrow at losing Judy, Wayne, and Her parents & her son. The year my daughter got married Judy, Diane, Carol, her mom, Pat, Carol Mangan, Mickie all wore the same outfit, I sure miss/love them!! I have a picture of them all at the reception. I will miss her dearly! What a wonderful and caring friend she was
