“ Charlene will be forever in Rich’s and my memory. Some of our best memories are with Charlene and Brian are when the four of us spent many weekends summer after summer on the Mississippi River. Charlene was always a caring and loving person who will be in our hearts forever.

“ Dear Brian, Erica and Lexie,

Living next door to Char for so long, it got to feel like a comfortable shoe. We knew when she was coming and going and how important her family was to her.

Every Christmas Joe and I looked forward to Char’s home baked cookies. We can’t remember how many years she had been baking and making the delivery, but it was so many that it became a tradition!

When we think of Char and the things we will miss about her are her trips by our house at the same time every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday when she picked Lexie up from school or dropped her off. If we were outside, it was a fast wave or a quick stop for a catch up on what was going on with us.

Char was always known to fix a big lunch for Brian at noon during the week days. When Brian was on his way home, and he was running early, Brian would stop and chat with neighbors on the way home. It was like clockwork, by 11:55, he would say he had to go....almost lunch time! We knew he had to be walking in the door by noon!

Every Thursday or Friday Char would send a text saying “going to the ranch or lake, be back Sunday, enjoy the paper!”

We will miss Char and her routine.

Warmly,

Joe Lange and Deb Shores
