“ Gary was such a nice guy. He was always so friendly to me and my family. He and I were Godparents to our niece Brandy. RIP Gary.

“ My biggest memory Gary was I had been plowing snow all night he came to my house woke me up to pull him out of place he had gotten his truck stuck. I was pissed off and I went and did it anyway but he was a kind of guy that you get mad at but you could not stay mad at him very long at all and he knew it he's a great guy like a brother to me and I loved him
