“ My heart is heavy for the loss of my cousin, Greg. Heaven gained a good soul; Greg was a very easy-going, kind and compassionate person. Childhood memories of getting together with my cousins are fond ones, many captured in photos and family "movies."

I remember Greg visiting our home with Ginny, sitting in the kitchen and talking, while they were quite young and dating. And, then their wedding day. Time certainly does fly. Greg had personally helped me anytime I was in need and I was always so grateful to know he had my back. May loving, fun, and cherished memories fill the void in your hearts with comfort and love. Greg is at peace with the Lord.

With deepest sympathy,
DeAnn Sharpless
