

James Temple

October 16, 1960 - January 10, 2020

James Alan Temple, 59, passed away Friday, January 10, 2020 in Dittmer, Missouri.

James was born on October 16, 1960 to William Dale and Patsy Temple, Sr.

He is preceded in death by his father, William Temple, Sr., and two sisters, Linda Temple and Sherri Burnett.

He is survived by,

his soul mate, Laurie Mize,

one (1) daughter, Mandy (Scott) Hard, three (3) grandchildren, Chloe (Rhyan) Bower, Emily Hard and Zach Hard,

his mother, Patsy Temple, four (4) siblings, William (JoAnn) Temple, Jr., Larry (Debbie) Temple, Flossie (Eric) Wills and Timothy Temple, one (1) brother-in-law, Robert Burnett, and many other family and friends.

James enjoyed sitting in his recliner watching 'how to' videos, watching birds and watching sunsets. He loved kids and they loved him. He always had a joke to tell because he liked to make others laugh. "If I'm getting smaller," he would say "it's because I'm leaving." James will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ I have a lot of memories of my childhood years in Dittmer, and of course Jimmy was a big part of that. He was always a lot of fun. Sorry to hear of his passing.

“ I have so many awesome memories with him. One memory in particular was when he bought me a night light when I was a kid and told me anytime I was feeling down to turn it on and think of something funny. He called it "the be alright light"! He could make me laugh no matter what mood I was in. He gave the best hugs!! And could fix anything. He will be missed by so many. Gone but never forgotten.

“ You always gave me a hug, and made me feel you were happy to see me. Talking and laughing by the wood stove having a beer late nights on your way home from work. I will always remember you. rest in peace.

“ Rest in Peace Cousin.. So Many Adventures with so little space to write about it .. You were the mr fix it and would rescue the elders when they needed help at a moments notice.. As time slowly swallows up our Dittmer playground we leave a legacy of life in the country and tthe Legend of Tarzanland.. Rest in Peace my friend until we meet again..

“ Jim was part of a group of us from Dittmer. I went to school with him and also considered him a good friend back then. God Bless him and we'll see him in again in Heaven.

“ Jimmy temple and Ronnie built me the most beautiful deck, he was always so sweet and thoughtful loved my dog and was always such kind friend to my son Drew who has Down Syndrome .always including him in his morning greet and his leaving for the day... He was really quite brilliant, if you ask him a question or needed to figure something out, he would not stop until he had that answer for you. I will now sit on my beautiful deck and think of those days of Jimmy and Ronnie. We even came up with a new company name “Deck Dynasty “ made with a wooden cross design because he loved the Lord .. he is home. Lela Ege “ Rest in Peace Sweet Cousin. I can't think of the hill in Dittmer and not picture you there. What a great guy who would lend a hand to anyone in need and a great protector to all that he loved.

“ I have so many memories of Jimmy I cant pick just one. They all involve having fun, laughing, dancing and the kids who happen to be around. Jimmy was one of the "Good Guys" and I will love and miss him until I see him again in Heaven!
