“ I hadn't seen Kim or her brother John since we were all young kids in Michigan. The thing I'll never forget about being in their home was the laughter. They were all kind and generous people who loved to laugh and were an absolute Joy to be around. I had happened upon some old letters that my mom had written many years ago before I was born, where she mentioned her friend Terry. I thought I'd try to look up Kim and John, and was saddened to find they were both gone, along with their dad, Big Jon. May God bring rest to their souls and comfort to the loved ones they leave behind, most especially their mom Terry, and their children.

“ Kim Huitt was like no other. It is not easy to love someone who is always screwing up but she did it flawlessly. She never cared about my dumb choices and was always always proud of the good. Shes been my mother, my sister, and my best friend. A love like hers is once in a lifetime and I'm so lucky to have known it. I've never been loved the way she loved me. They say you dont know what you got till it's gone. I've always know I've loved my best friend with all my heart I just didn't know she helped my heart grow so big. I love you Kim Huitt!!!! R.I.P

“ We had so many memories I couldn't pick one. I guess the one I really remember was in High School and I spent the night at her house. I had to sleep on the couch. They neglected to tell me that was usually where the Great Dane slept. So I woke up with a 200lbs Dane sleeping on me. Kim was just bigger than life. Everyone loved Kim. Heaven will have there hands full with this sweet Angel. Love you always Kim.
