She is preceded in death by her parents, and her brother, James Williams,

She is survived by her loving husband, Don Walls, four (4) children, Christy (Tyler) Gregory of Hillsboro, Missouri, Crystal (Geoffrey) Wells of Belleville, Illinois, Candace (Tyler) Kasper of Wright City, Missouri and Mark (Lori) Walls of Hillsboro, Missouri, three (3) sisters, Louise (Richard) Brookshire of Troy, Missouri, Donna (Mike) Bausworth of Ware, Missouri and Barbara "Barbie" Reynolds of New Baden, Illinois, along with many other family and friends.

Patti, If you ever met her, you surely have been hugged by her. She never met a stranger, and left a lasting impression on everyone she met with her "unique" and fun personality. Every friend of her children became an "adopted child" of hers, and to this day, they still call her their "second Mom". She genuinely loved people. Among her favorite memories were those of time spent with her "very best girlfriend Faye", of whom she has been friends with since the first grade. With her husband, she loved trips to Memphis and Colorado, bowling leagues, and going out to dinner at their favorite local restaurants. When her children were young, she loved watching her son play baseball and football and with her daughters, she enjoyed helping at class parties and Girl Scout meetings. With her grandchildren, Patti loved gardening, filling bird feeders and playing bingo at the, almost weekly, family get-togethers. Most recently, she loved “hunting for treasure” at the local Goodwill and Garage Sales, and giving those ‘treasures’ to her kids, grandkids, and anyone else in need. Her biggest joy was giving to others, whether her time, care, treasures or hugs. Patti will forever be remembered, loved, and missed by all who knew her.

“ I have to many to just single out one moment. However, my childhood was spent a lot of time with my Aunt Fayes family. My mom had passed. Faye helped my grandmother raise me. And so I gain 2 wonderful moms. Then I was blessed to spend a lot of time with Pat and Don, their wonderful family. And now I had 3 moms. God just kept on giving. And he knew 3 moms would do the job of one mom. Just that much better. All different yet all with same love to share.

I can count the nights we would play tag or hide n seek with her beautiful girls. Running around the house like crazies Children. Pat never once complained we were to loud or we may get hurt. She would laugh at how silly we were. Probably give us some made up story. And then say” Ain’t that right Faye.”Of course Faye was on her side. Their are best friends.

And she would always give us a hug! If you did not first thing. She was going to say” excuse me. Did you forget to hug your momma? “ With a big smile and open arms. You never forgot on purpose. Because Pat was the best hugger around. You wanted to feel that love. It was a safe caring kind of feeling every time.

One memory of many. Pat had a dog. That for some reason hated us kids. We were always looking down to see if it was going to bite us. Snarling at us. Or so it seemed back then.Lol. Pat would just pick it up, in the middle of teeth showing and all. And could calm it down. Take it the other room. And assure us. It won’t bite us. Kind of? In her fun teasing way. She would say “I am going to let her or him back out. If you don’t settle down. “

That house on the little hill. I still look to see if it is there. Even though I already know it is not. Makes me smile every time!
