Richard loved cars, hunting and motorcycles. He enjoyed road trips with his wife, Novella. They would listen to gospel and country music while touring the highways of the United States. Richard also loved woodworking and he excelled at it. He was very creative and imaginative. He built his own kitchen cabinets, birdhouses and beautiful knives. He even remodeled the home his father owned. Richard was meticulous about a variety of items he enjoyed collecting. He loved his family and was dedicated to making memories with them. His children remember one Christmas Eve that he created an ice rink using black plastic and a water hose. He was anticipating their ice skates they would open on Christmas morning. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ Thank you for loving me in spite of all my craziness...for all you did so I could have Paint, my bicycle, the treehouse, the toolkits when I got my first car and my first apartment, for the family road trips and Cardinal baseball games, the years of season passes to Six Flags, for providing and fixing things...and teaching me to fix things...for loving and taking care of Mom like you did. I love you but more importantly, thank you for loving God. See you and Mom soon.
