“ You were the most genuine soul. We haven't hung out in a year, for reasons you knew of. But when I tried to apologize, you rejected my apology. You told me that you understood that sometimes life happens and we have to make certain decisions, but you never loved me any less for it. "Love ya lex. You were always there and same on my end. You're a good person lex, don't let anyone tell you otherwise. I'm not forgiving you, because there's nothing to forgive. Don't be so hard on yourself". You knew I tried being the best friend that I could be. I'll miss you being protective over me like a big brother, checking in on me, letting me beat you in darts and ski ball. I'll miss being able to have someone to have as much trust in me as I do in them. I love you man. I know you're keeping my mom laughing up there and keeping her company.

Richie was dear to me and my family. Always that smile and concern for us. We will always remember the vacation with us and our grandson, Jordan and his friends in Gulf Shores. He called to check on us several times since we lost Jordan. He was at our home to comfort

Us in that awful time. He was always caring and sweet. We'll miss you Richie. Say hi to Our Jordan. Rest In Peace. Mema

It's been years since I talked to Richie. But the memories we created during baseball were phenomenal and some of the best years of my life. The Hawks will miss you! I'm sure you're flying like one now though. I'll see you again one day so we can catch up on top. Miss ya buddy! God bless you and your family.

Richie was friends with 2 of my boys (Lewis and Travis) he was always at our house we loved him very much and always will. I remember he definitely had an appetite but that was ok. Richie would always come to me no matter where he would see me with a big smile on his face and would call me mom give me a hug and kiss and he did the same as he would leave everytime. I am going to miss him, but when I see him next time you can bet I will get my hug and kiss . Richie we love and miss you. RIP see you soon!! Love the Ludwig's
