“ I first met Wayne at Provision Living West on my 1st day of employment there. I was a little nervous interacting with the Elders. I was not familiar with Dementia. So I didnt know how to interact. I was introduced to Wayne, and I soon felt right at home. He was a quite the flirt with the ladies, and I was able to be one of the lucky ones! His name for me was " Fare Maiden" One day I was walking threth the dining room, and I stopped at a few tables to say Hi to the Elders. Wayne pointed at me and said Hey! I know you! And I said you do? He said yes! I've seen you in the movies...I will never forget that memory. He always knew how to make you feel special...If He liked you! LOL! One of my last memories with Wayne was about a week before he passed. He was sitting in his wheelchair in the hall after dinner, looking kind of tired. I asked Him if he wanted a ride to His room. He just smiled and nodded . So I said can you sing me a song? We sang" Fly Me to the Moon" together, and smiled. I took Him to His room, and He thanked me . He said I really appreciate you! It still brings tears to my eyes. He would give me a hard time some times saying he didnt want me to take the menu and change it out for the next day. I would say OK Wayne I'll come back later , and smile and give Him a Hug. Then he would hand it to me. Lol. I think He just needed a Hug! He is surely missed! He was a very special friend.
