“ I remember as a kid every other week Uncle Bill Billy and myself would be at the lake either fishing or water skiing. I now live in Tennessee. I lived in Missouri for 38 years and didn't get a Missouri fishing license never fished in Missouri I only knew this Lake. Whether it was hunting fishing taking trips to Colorado to ride dirt bikes most of my Outdoors was with Uncle Bill. These last few years we got even closer he was either at the house here or my family was at his house every week when he was here. Every time he would come over he would bring the kids ice creams he was always about the kids. I love you Uncle Willie you will be dearly missed!
