“ WHEN I GO
When I go
don't learn to live without me just learn to live with my love in a different way.
And if you need to see me close your eyes or look in your shadow when the sun shines
I'm there.
Sit with me in the quiet and you will know that I did not leave.
There is no leaving when a soul is blended with another.
When I go
don't learn to live without me
just learn to look for me in the moments.
I will be there.
You are missed BIG heart Al

“ Sam, Kat, family and his many friends my deepest sympathy and prayers. I was Al's sister in law for many years, so many wonderful memories of our get togethers and his grilling-boy could he grill and barbecue.

One memory of one of our get togethers was Al grilling, playing board games and Jungle Juice that he mixed up in a new 5 gallon bucket. I haven't touched the stuff since, after a 3 day hangover, bruised ribs, and could only eat graham crackers and had to stay with them those 3 days. Needless to say but all the other gatherings we had were alcohol free for me. The camping trip we took when I was pregnant with Ray and Tina was pregnant with Kat, we went on a float trip and it was overcast, then it started to storm, the girls were crying and Al and Carey were paddling so fast to get us to shore and out of the storm, but I got so sunburned and dehydrated Al, Carey and Tina had to rush me to the hospital, after they were sore and tired from rowing. So many wonderful memories and never 1 complaint from him. Such a wonderful person, father, and Papa. Love ya big guy!

“ My friend, Al. He was a spitfire, to say the least. Held fast in his love and commitment to family and friends. He was one of the best and truest friends I had. I am so happy to know that I was able to see him (even briefly) when he came down to do what he loved and cheer him on in the process. I will forever be in his debt and hope to repay it when we meet on the other side. I know he will be watching over his family for sure! Many hugs and much love to those that knew him best!

“ We were High school Sweethearts, many many good times. Valentine's Day and Halloween was always our favorites. We used to go to haunted houses. One specific time, We were holding hands throughout the haunted house and when I looked back at him there was a monster and I was holding his hand! I ran out of there and Alan came out walking in a full belly laugh! Then our Halloween parties and "pumpkin hunting"! He and friends came home after falling in manure. Valentine's Day was always a very special day. We had gone sledding in the quarry. I went down the hill and busted my tailbone. He carried me up the hill. I went to get an Xray (pregnancy test a must), I was shocked and in disbelief. Alan was beside himself and so excited!

The day we married a special day. I cried during vows and he looked at me and said, "cool"!

My favorite memories are the days our daughters Samantha and Kathryn were born.

The week before Samantha was born we had been at the hospital and sent home. I was still in pain from contractions and he was so disappointed we were leaving and not having a baby. He started crying! After Sam was born, he made sure to pass out real cigars! When I was in labor with Kat, we were on our way to the hospital. He was so much more laid back, he asked "can we stop and grab breakfast first?"

After Kat was born he passed out the pink candy cigars. He was such a very good father!

We had many special times together, too many to mention but all remembered so fondly.

He'll be missed beyond measure! He will live on in all the memories, our 2 beautiful girls and our 3 beautiful grandchildren!

“ *To all the family and friends who feel this emptiness with the loss of Alan!
Love you Al!!!!*

*May you see God's light on the path ahead
When the road you walk is dark.
May you always hear,
Even in your hour of sorrow,
The gentle singing of the lark.
When times are hard may hardness
Never turn your heart to stone,
May you always remember
when the shadows fall,
You do not walk alone.*
