“ Even though Albert is technically my 2nd cousin we always called him Uncle Albert. Gale, Dennis, and myself (Pam) thought he was the absolute best! He was the one adult that would play with us for hours and we felt so special and included. That is huge for a child! He always "saw" us. We were further impressed that he could ice skate and watched in amazement as he flew around Elma and Kenneth's small pond. I will never forget his kindness and love toward 3 small children. Blessings to his family, I know your loss is great. XOXO
