“ Uncle Alex was my godfather and always a special man in my life. The last time I was able to visit him will always be in my memories. Since I live in Colorado, the covid 19 virus keeps me from being at his funeral. I realize he put up a great fight to stay alive, and his life was a good one. I know he'll be rewarded in the hereafter. Maybe he'll even recognize my Hubbie, Don, in the heavens above!❤️🙏 My deepest sympathy to all. Diana Alfermann and family

Thank you, Diana. We missed you today, but absolutely agree with your decision not to travel. Dad would always talk about you and had hoped to visit you one day. When you came to their house, he'd talk about it for days later. Dad loved his family very much. Much love to you!!!

“ *Marge and family,
Just now learned of Alex's death. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you give thanks for his life and now his entrance into eternal life. We have many great memories of our relationships when we served St. Martin's and through our ministerial group and gatherings and ecumenical services. May God give you strength as you go through these days and may you have God's peace that passes all human understand go with you each step in the days ahead. Pastor Ivan and Viv Horn*
