

Alex Schodrowski

April 24, 1993 - January 5, 2024

Schodrowski, Alex R., of Imperial, Missouri, was born April 24, 1993 in St. Louis County, Missouri to Rick and Laraine (nee Klobe) Schodrowski and entered into rest Friday, January 5, 2024 in Imperial, Missouri at the age of 30 years.

He is survived by his father, Rick Schodrowski, mother, Laraine Schodrowski, brother, Jake Schodrowski, sister, Jess Schodrowski, niece, Josie Schodrowski, and god-daughter, Mackenzie Kaemmerer as well as tons of family and friends that will miss him greatly.

Alex was born on April 24th, 1993 with a naturally sweet and kind soul. As a child, Alex would refer to himself as “Superman, the protector.” Beyond childhood, he continued to be Superman, the protector. He was selfless and always put others first. He provided a shoulder for anyone to lean on. His compassion transformed the lives of everyone he encountered.

Alex spent most of his time outside. He would spend weekends on the water or in the trees. Majority of the clothes he owned were base layers and different shades of green.

Music was his passion. He loved beating his drums and tapping a tune with his fingers, but his favorite instrument was a kitchen sink.

Alex loved to spend time in the kitchen. His delicacy was whatever he hunted himself.

His love for music, outdoors and cooking were only surpassed by the love he had for his family. The relationship he shared with his dad and brother was an unbreakable bond. There was not a day that passed that a phone call wasn't made between the three.

Although he didn't have a church home, he accepted Dave Grohl as his Lord and Savior.

We are committed to honoring Alex in every way possible. He would want everyone to spend more time together and more time outside. We will deeply miss him and his contagious smile.

Here are links to his Spotify playlists. Listening to and admiring is one of the best ways to pay a tribute to him:

“ Alex, you were always a thoughtful, kind, calm & honest young man. A wonderful next door neighbor that I will always think of fondly. I cannot yet accept that you are gone from this earth. This doesn't seem real nor fair! I will remember you always. I will strive to honor you through my actions. We planted a tree in your name sweet boy. To your brother & family... sending y'all so much care & love! So so truly sorry!

“ Sent you flowers bud, its the least I can do and I know you would of done the same for me. I choose not to acknowledge how we grew apart of the past few years, but to acknowledge all the memories we shared together that won't be forgotten. From Mamaws and attempting to learn how to gainer to your house and trying not to wake up Big Rick. Until we meet again brother. Rest easy.
