“ Because someone told me that he thought Alexis would have liked flowers.....Sometimes the things held closest to the heart are the most fleeting. One day you are waiting the arrival of your special flower and all of a sudden you wake up and you have a beautiful blossom, one that shakes your world to it's core...soon after you have a fallen petal or two and then it is gone. Nurturing flowers that only last a short time often reward us in the most unexpected ways. Take comfort in knowing that now you have a special guardian angel to watch over you and your family.
