

Alycia Brianne Corn

August 22, 1998 - July 26, 2025

Alycia Brianne Corn of Bonne Terre, Missouri, was born August 22, 1998 in St. Louis, Missouri to William Corn Jr. and Barbara (nee Hagler) Thompson and entered into rest Saturday, July 26, 2025 at the age of 26 years.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, James and Loretta Hagler, and William Corn Sr., and her uncle, Thomas Trigg.

She is survived by her children, Grayson Ryder Wideman and Elijah Christopher Bauer; parents, Barbara (nee Hagler) Thompson and William Corn Jr.; siblings, Jonathan (Jasmine) Hagler, Matthew Corn, and Michael (Brittany) Corn; grandparents, Alice and Stephen Rethemeyer; aunts and uncles, Christy Reed, Carla and John Jennemann, James (Tina) Hagler, and numerous others; cousins, Anna Bertrand, Melissa Bertrand, Kayla Clay, Edward Hollmann Jr., Brandi Cushman, and numerous others; along with nieces, nephews, and other extended family and friends.

Alycia had brown eyes and her favorite color was purple. She made mistakes like all of us, but she had a great heart. Though she was one person to the world, she was an organ donor who saved the lives of two people and more to come. Her selfless gift has brought hope, healing, and a second chance at life to others—making her a true hero. To her family, she was already deeply loved, but to the recipients of her organs, she is nothing short of a miracle.

Her legacy of generosity lives on through those she saved.
