“ Pam and I started being friends when we worked together. I think that during my teenage years I spent more time at her house than I did at my own. I started out calling her Mrs. Richardson but by the end of the first summer it was just “ Mom”. She was the best and some of my best times were sitting on the patio listening to music, telling stories and Pam and I making her and Al, shake their heads at our adventures. She was one of the best adopted moms a girl could ask for. She was the biggest cheerleader for Pam and Greg that kids could ask for. She was an Angel here on earth, I KNOW she is in Heaven having her wings fitted so they looked just right. Fly High Mom, love you always.

“ I will miss talking and sharing our health concerns with Ann when she was cleaning on Fridays at St. Martin. She never complained and enjoyed working as long as she could. Sincere sympathy to all her family.
