“ *Dan,
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. It is hard to imagine the grief that you are going through. Andy was a pleasure to work with and always offered his ideas on how to make things work better. He will be missed.*

“ My thoughts and prayers for your family at this time of deep sadness. It was a pleasure over the years of high school and some college watching Andy play hockey with my son, John Karl. How dedicated Andy was to the sport, my privilege to have shared that part of his life.

“ Dan,
We are keeping you and your wife in our prayers.
Our sadness of your loss cannot begin to be put into words so instead I will share a memory of you and Andy to honor this fine young man.
You were working on a job in Warrenton and afterward the two of you were going to play golf.
I will never forget thinking how wonderful it was to see a father and son have such a great friendship.
May that deep love and friendship along with the strength of GOD embrace you and your family.

“ Today was extremely tough. I've lost friends, family, fraternity brothers, pets and jobs. Yet losing some goofy kid I was lucky enough to call my neighbor for 25 years has been the hardest. My whole life I thought he was invincible or had 9 lives and now I realize just how fragile we all are. The amount of stories from us growing up is endless and would seem stupid to the rest of the world but they mean so much more than anyone could know. I wish I could redo the last few years and take you up on all the offers to grab a beer or hit 9 after work. Most of all I wish I could tell you that you were the closest thing to a brother I've ever had. RIP Andy Houska I'll miss you brother

“ Andy, what a sweet boy from the moment you were born. You were always kind, gentle and respectful. You had a zest for life, and had a wild side (much to your parents' chagrin). We will miss you forever. John always enjoyed you and admired your athletic ability. Our family has a void, that can never be filled. We love you forever!

“ My condolences to the Andy's family and friends. He will be deeply missed. Andy was such a great young man. He was a very good hockey player and was a great asset to Northwest Hockey back in the days when we were just starting out. I have great memories of him as a skater and a shooter.
