

Anita Lucille Bowers (nee Mudge)

February 20, 1929 - April 29, 2024

Anita Lucille Bowers (nee Mudge), of Dittmer, Missouri, was born February 20, 1929 in Yount, Missouri to Renford and Martina (nee Trousdale) Mudge and entered into rest Monday, April 29, 2024 in Chesterfield, Missouri at the age of 95 years. Anita, a cherished member of her family and community, was a beacon of love, devotion, and kindness throughout her life.

She is preceded in death by her parents; Renford and Martina (nee Trousdale) Mudge, her grandson; Ronald Delashmet II, her siblings; Melvin (Dorothy) Mudge, Alvena Hill, and Elmo Mudge.

Anita found her greatest joy in spending time with her beloved family. As a devoted mother, she poured her heart into nurturing and guiding her children, leaving a legacy of love that will endure through generations. Anita's role as a doting grandmother and great grandmother brought her immense happiness, and she cherished every moment spent with her precious grandchildren.

A beloved sister, Anita was a source of strength and support to her siblings, fostering deep bonds of love and camaraderie within her family circle.

A woman of unwavering faith, Anita's life was guided by her Christian values. She exemplified compassion and understanding, never passing judgment on others and always extending a hand of friendship to those in need. Anita found solace and inspiration in the pages of the Bible, drawing wisdom and comfort from its teachings.

Anita's generosity knew no bounds, and she was known for her philanthropic spirit and willingness to help others in any way she could. As a successful real estate investor, she used her talents to rehabilitate and restore homes, leaving a tangible impact on her community.

Anita had a passion for nature and took great delight in the beauty of flowers. Her green thumb was evident in her thriving vegetable garden, where she cultivated an abundance of fresh produce with care and dedication. A skilled cook and baker, Anita delighted in preparing delicious meals and treats for her loved ones, filling their hearts and bellies with warmth and joy.

In her leisure time, Anita found enjoyment in the simple pleasures of life, including her favorite pastime of playing the online game, Candy Crush. Her playful spirit and zest for life endeared her to all who knew her.

Anita Bowers will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her legacy of love, kindness, and generosity will continue to inspire and uplift those whose lives she touched. Though she may no longer be with us in person, her spirit will live on in the hearts of all who loved her.

“ Anita was my neighbor when Doug and I moved in , in 2007 and she was a great neighbor and friend, she was always dressed like she was going out , I admired that. She always liked a good deal too , she came to many of my sales and we had some nice conversations. She was a treasure and I'll miss her tremendously. God bless her and I know she's with our lord ❤️🙏
