“ Anita always was and always be a beautiful lady. She was a friend that wore a forever smile. She would never tire of telling all of my friends and family how she used to change my diapers. I'm 63 years old and she would still tell it. Anita you are loved by many and by one especially, Jesus. Now all of your questions will be answered. Dance!

“ Sis. Redding was a Very Special Woman that Loved the Lord with her whole heart! She was always so sweet and the several times I talked to her, I could feel God's Love flowing through her! She told me one time, that she really liked the teaching of her Sun. School Teacher and I found out it was someone in my family. I was surprised. Sis. Redding was always in my prayers and now she's with her Savior walking the streets of gold! No more pain. Worshipping & Shouting before the throne! Reunited with family & fiends! My Love & Prayers go out to all the family! May the Holy Spirit bring you Comfort & a Strength in the days ahead!

“ I have 77 years of memories of my beautiful sister. She has always been there for me and I treasure every day of those 77 years. No one could ask for a better sister. We talked on the phone many times for an hour trying to solve each others problems but of course in this age of smart phones, we texted instead. I love you, my sister, and will look for you at Jesus feet!
