

Ann S. Stewart

November 24, 1930 - April 26, 2025

Ann S. Stewart, beloved daughter of the late Teresa and Carl Schoenholtz, passed away Saturday, April 26, 2025 at the age of 94. Loving wife of the late, Thomas H. Stewart, devoted mother of Jay (Kimberly) Stewart, Jan (Wesley) Kruckenberg, and Todd (Sheila) Stewart, cherished grandmother of Haley Stewart and Ainsley Stewart,

Ann was born on November 24, 1930 in Connersville, Indiana. She graduated from the University of Indiana and received her bachelor's degree in Musical Arts, and she loved playing the piano and violin. Ann married Thomas, the love of her life, December 27, 1951, and remained faithful to him to her last day. They always enjoyed celebrating their anniversary and special occasions at the beach in their neighborhood in Timberlake, Illinois. She always looked forward to Fourth of July and watching the fireworks from the beach with her family.

Ann's passion was theatre, and she worked as a musical director for the Pullman Players in Wauconda, IL, and Music on Stage in Palatine, IL for 50 years. She was also very crafty and made the lobby boards for the playwrights. She was extremely talented, and sewed clothing for kids and was an amazing seamstress. She also knitted and crocheted and made blankets, hats, gloves, and scarves for her family as well. She took up painting in her spare time and created some wonderful pieces of art.

With her love of golf, Ann was on a league for many years, and volunteered for the PGA in Chicago at Kemper Lakes and even got Payne Stewart's autograph. She also enjoyed playing Bridge once a week with friends, and she was on a bowling league in Wauconda.

Ann was dearly loved and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences at www.stlfuneral.com and follow details of this event and others in the community at www.facebook.com/stlchapelhill
