

Anna Marie Cicerelli

November 28, 1942 - June 3, 2023

It is our deep sadness to inform you that Anna Marie Cicerelli has entered the kingdom of God. She is now with her Father Leopaldo, Mother Amelia and First born son/ Michael. She is also, with all of our beloved dearly departed family that left us all way too early.

She was loved by everyone that met her, and she loved everyone she met. She accomplished many things in her life, the most important was the 59 year marriage to her soulmate, Angelo Cicerelli.

She truly did live life to the fullest; she traveled, entertained, helped others, and gave to the church that she went to every Sunday. She enjoyed the casinos, lunch gatherings on Sundays, and playing Clue, Chinese checkers, and Pokeno with granddaughters. She would never, ever miss out on a Friday night Poker game. She could play and bluff with the best.

As she did on Earth, she will continue to look over her Husband Angelo, and her sons and their families Leo & Melissa, David, Steve and Angie from her Heavenly home.

She will keep an eye on and take special care of her Granddaughters and their spouses, Lael, Rachel & Jacob, Amelia, and Christen, her step granddaughter Abigail and step great-grandson Elias.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to one of her favorite charities, St. Jude's or Tunnels to Towers.

God Bless everyone that knew her and God Bless everyone in the world today.

“ I was the flower girl in Anna Marie and Angelo’s wedding and have always felt a special kinship with her. The get togethers at their home was always lively and fun not to mention the food was delicious.

She and my Mom (Angie Corey) were especially close. Anna Marie was always asking about my family and we shared an interest in crafting among other things . I will miss our talks greatly. RIP dearest cousin.

“ I have so many cherished memories. Those New Years Eve parties, the family picnics. Aunt Ann you will be missed. Our last conversation was about the Las Vegas trip you took with my parents. You said best trip ever. My heart goes out to my uncle, cousins, she is our angel now. Love you all very much. Your niece JoAnn
