“ I was taking picture every monday and wednesday on the project he was doing at Fabick and he would always say it is picture time again. We would kid and I would tell him I need for you to dress up for these pictures. Such a sweet person. My heart goes out to the family. Most of all his son, what a nice Dad you had. I hope you always remember that. Not much help now, but he will be looking down watching you. and when you go out side at night and see that real bright star that's your Dad.
