Annabelle fed us, sang to us, supported us, cared for us, loved us, grew beautiful things out of the ground and always made us laugh. She was a blue-eyed beauty. An independent working woman. A real organizer. A lot of classy and a little outrageous. Oh, how she will be missed.

“ So sorry for you loss. Annabelle was a true friend and an excellent co-worker. She brought laughter to all of us at Moraine. And always had us smiling. She will be deeply missed. We love you.

“ First, I must preface my stories with one phrase, I loved this wonderful woman and friend. Annabelle brought life to everyone she was inear. She volunteered at the Shepherd's Center of Webster Kirkwood and there are always stories people tell about "oh my gosh you won't believe it"...well, Annabelle was the person you talked about because she left you shocked, in gales of giggles and did it with a warm heart! Annabelle was a consummate and beautiful flirt, sang songs, rolled her eyes...she made you smile. She said that I was Italian by injection, just like her and I still tell people that and think of her. There are many stories about her but I'll save that for Franklin and Lu's book about her and if there is a chapter in that book for friends, I can add some pages. Dear sweet Annabella, you are missed!
