“ Clinton, I am truly sorry that as your cousin, I did not have the opportunity to get to know you...but..I believe you are now in the arms of Jesus and having a blast with getting to know all your family in Heaven. May God comfort you family & friends in only the way He knows how.

“ I got your letters out today. The ones you wrote me in Basic. I hate this. I hate that there's a world without you in it now. You'll never know how wonderful and amazing you were as a person to me. I'm so sorry I didn't tell you more. You started my life. You gave me the best gift just by being a part of it. I'll always hold you in my heart. Not a day goes by that I won't think of your smile and your goofy laugh. You truly were one of a kind to me. RIP. I'll love you forever.

He loved going to school to attend the girls activities and once appeared in my classroom in full mountain man gear. We pray that your family finds peace knowing so many pray and care about you. “ I remember the last time I saw bill, he was visiting Donna. She lives across the street from me and as I was getting in my car to go to work, this booming voice yells out.. "HEY!" I turn around and it's Mr. Bill. I gave him a big hug and then he showed me the tailgate of his truck which has all his grandchildren's names on it. He was so proud of that I thought he would pop his suspenders. This is how I choose to remember him....big grin and standing tall. Rest In Peace Mr. Bill :-)
