“ My dad was the epitome of what a real man is. He was strong both mentally and physically. He was a hard worker always providing for his family. He often sacrificed everything for his family and friends. He was very loving to his family and friends. I often heard dad tell both family and friends how much he loved them. He was very forgiving. No matter what I ever did, dad was always willing to forgive me. Dad was a faithful husband. While other guys were out with the boys at a pub, dad was at home having supper with his wife and kids. Dad was also faithful to God which is where I know my Dad garnered his strength. My dad had the most sincere relationship with God than anyone I know. And Dad was always praying for everyone. If you are reading this I could almost assure you that Dad had prayed for you too. I'll be forever thankful to God for Dad. He will forever be missed and never forgotten.
