“ I was saddened to find that Barb had passed away. She was a nice lady and a gentle soul who was always very friendly and enjoyed chatting every time I shopped at my favorite thrift store, Feed My People just off of Hwy 30. I'm sure she made quite a difference in the lives of the needy as well as those who shopped at that thrift store. No doubt she had a big grin on her face the moment she passed through the gates of heaven. Karen McGillis

“ "On the air they rise and fly an invisible course, gathering nothing, storing nothing. ... Joyous and clear like the lake, still as the stone at the door, free from life and death."

Mom, you are free. Your soul is beginning its new life. Your voice is strong and clear and powerful. Words flow with eloquence and thoughts fall into expressive words without hesitation. You can dance. Your hands are agile and respond to the most delicate task.

We shared so much and I will always carry our bond in my heart.

*Your ever loving daughter,
Mary*
