along with numerous extended family and friends.

Bernie was a big talker; he was everybody's friend and knew no stranger. He loved everyone; he could talk to anybody and spent many years as a professional Santa. He had a big, loving, and kind heart to all that knew him. He enjoyed traveling, fishing, and you could often find him on treasure hunt with his metal detector. Bernie enjoyed fixing things; some would call him Mr. Fix it. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Arrangements under the direction of Chapel Hill Mortuary, Cedar Hill, Missouri. In lieu of flowers memorial donations can be made to Leukemia Society 1972 Innerbelt Business Center Dr, St. Louis, MO 63114. Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences online at www.stlfuneral.com and follow details of this event and others in the community at www.facebook.com/stlchapelhill.
