Bernice Wittmaack was a loving and devoted woman whose greatest joy in life was her family, whom she cherished above all else. She found happiness in the simple pleasures—dancing, working on crossword puzzles, and cheering on soccer. Bernice especially loved being on the water, where she enjoyed fishing and soaking in the peace it brought her. A wonderful cook, she expressed her love through the meals she prepared and the memories made around the table. Her warmth, care, and love will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

“ This is Virginia James and we met in the mid-1950s when they moved in around the corner at 8th and Mullanphy. We used to go dancing on the weekends at St. Louis House, Liederkrantz, and the Polish Hall. My married name was Mrs. Walter Kubus(he passed in July of 2009).

“ My lovely Godmother. She was always welcoming, caring and giving and her beautiful smile would light up a room. She had such a sweet sense of humor. When laying in the hospital bed, my dad touched her hand and she said “are you cold?” with a little smirk. She always made me laugh. On any occasion, she always offered to make her delicious pierogi’s and of course enough, double the crowd. I will miss you my beautiful and loving Godmother. Heaven is blessed to have a new angel.❤️

Bernice was a beautiful woman inside and out. She was always a cheerful person who always wore a lovely smile. I can't remember a family event over the years that she didn't attend. She was always there for her beloved family. I was blessed to know her and she will be greatly missed by many. Rest in peace in the arms of Jesus. ❤️
