“ Betty was a one of a kind for her generation. She fought hard everyday for fairness and equality. She was a good and faithful servant to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Rest in peace Betty, you deserve it.

“ Betty taught me life lessons. Honesty is a value to treasure, friends must be treated with respect and treasured, faith is lived out in every day life and your church isn't a place for just worship but where you live out the truths of what you believe and take out into the world. I remember talking to Betty about a lesson I shared with the senior high school group when the Lion King movie came out and she laughed and laughed when I told her about the lesson they learned from that movie and the "circle of life" song. She loved life, her family, and the world. Betty gave the best hugs and loved singing in the choir. She added wonderful memories to my life and I am proud to be what she said of me, "you are the most unusual preacher's wife I have ever known." I will always love you Betty, Cheryl Ladage

“ Mrs. Seeley made a huge impact on my life. The Bible says "All things work together for good to those that love Him & are called according to his purpose". I believe God sent her to me in 1969 when I didn't know if I would live or die. She provided sound advice & gave me the strength to leave a life threatening situation. She never knew what happened to me until we met again at a Community Meeting in 1999, 30 years later. I introduced myself & she remembered me! She was absolutely unbelievable. She gave me the biggest hug & said she didn't get to hear very many success stories. I am very thankful I was able to thank her personally for the impact her care & concern had on my life. To me, she will remain a unique & special lady, forever!
