“ I became involved with Betty and her wonderful family as a social worker. I was able to see Betty laugh and when she had her eyes closed but was ALWAYS listening. I am blessed to know her family. My thoughts are with her husband Jim, daughters Dana and Mardel as they grieve and begin another path in life. Hugs Tina Bardle

“ I have known Betty and family since early 70s. Put kids played together. We were. Neighbors for several years. Wonderful person. Fond memories and great times! Riding horses playing with the kids, picnics, laying cards. Always in my heart. Prayers for Jim and family 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏
