“ I have only known for about 6 years but the love that she had for family was so great. We would just sit and talk about the family trips. The excitement of new arrivals in the family. How much she enjoyed being gigi. Ready for the next generation of happiness. I really do think she knew Emery was waiting for this past week. She talked about him a lot of being the christian man he was and she missed him everyday. The Huitt has lost a special loved one for a time, but will be together again one day. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. You have showed her that love is a great and powerful part of family.
