“ Mama, I can not express how heavy my heart is today. You were the first heart I heard beating next to mine, your eyes were the first eyes that looked at me with love, your smile was the first I saw as I entered the world and as I kissed you on when they took you away my heart went with you. I love you so very much and I will miss you all the days of my life. Until I see you again, I will watch for those little yellow flowers in the spring. Mama I love you!

“ Grammy, You were the strongest, toughest, most courageous woman I've ever known. You taught me so much in my 32 years of life and that is something I will keep with me forever. This world isn't right without you in it. Please watch over Seany. He doesn't understand fully what is going on, but someday he will. But he will grow up knowing that he had an amazing great grandmother who loved him oh so much. you are the wind beneath our wings. I love you Grammy.
