“ The last time I saw Bev was at Aunt Bee's 80th surprise birthday party. I always enjoyed seeing both her mother and her when they visited my wonderful mother-in-law and adopted mom, Thelma Krewson. We would laugh a lot as I listened to family stories. Bev and I also talked about the goodness of the Lord. So glad I knew Bev. I won't say goodbye, Bev, but rather "See you later!"

“ I remember visiting with cousin Beverly along with her mother (my great aunt “Bee”) while they were visiting my grandma, Thelma Krewson (Elean) in Hannibal, Mo back in the 1980’s. I enjoyed the stories they told and I remember how much we all laughed. I lost touch with her after my grandma Thelma passed away in 1990. I will always cherish the memories of her and Aunt “Bee” (Beulah).

“ Hi! I will always remember after my husband Rick and I were married and later had our daughter Vickie how she would put together a very nice Christmas Eve meal. Then at 12 we would go watch my sisters sing at Concordia Lutheran Church , While her mom and dad watched our baby girl. Once special Christmas Eve she had glass candy jars and she put miniature manger scenes in them. I loved that gift very much and over 30 years later I still have it. I put it out every holiday. I always thought I would make them for others but never did. Memories !
