“ My condolences to the entire Medley family, for the loss of Big Brother Bill. I lived two doors down from your family. He was a good young man, helping to take care of his little brothers and sisters, along with Alice. All of us older kids on that road were responsible for the little ones, it was a wonderful place to grow up. I remember watching Bill tying his bicycle to those of Bob and Dick Ingram, train fashion, and flying as fast as they could around all the houses and up and down the road. So much fun to watch. I know he will be very much missed. God's Blessings to all of you.
