“ I will so miss our long conversations Bill Ross. I met you over 40 years ago when families were blended together. You provided a livelihood as a patriarch to so many of us who were apart of the Traffic Control family. You always paid it forward with your Shriner work and had a smile on your face doing it. I have no doubt the lane drops, flashing barricades, wide loads, roll-off containers & portable toilets in Heaven are in good shape now. Rest peacefully all your hard work here is complete. 🙏

So sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He was such a sweetheart to me. Ron always told me stories of when he would come visit him. We are sorry we were not told about him passing. This breaks my heart. God has a special Angel with him! R.I.P. Love you will miss you!

“ Bill and I have many years of memories, laughs, shared meals and business dealings. He was a man of his word and a good friend. About 25 years ago, my firm was low bidder on a MODOT highway contract in Royal Gorge in southeast Missouri. It was a very dangerous location and I noticed all sorts of car parts on the three bridges we were to replace. I went to Bill and had him make a pair of standard orange and black signs reading SLOW DOWN OR DIE. One was stolen and the last I heard was in a bar in Illinois. Needless to say, MODOT had a fit...no sense of humor at all. A photo also ended up in a national trade magazine. I sold my company in 2000 but hanging on my home office wall is a picture of that sign! Rest well, my friend. You lead an exemplary life.

“ We were so blessed when Bill married Linda and became a part of our family. He was such a positive and fun person to be around. I always loved when he and Linda would take me to Landry's Seafood House when they were visiting Las Vegas. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love,

“ My deepest condolences on the loss of this wonderful man. For many years Bill and my brother Ed Sidwell brothers of the freemason's and shiners doing as much good as they could for others and their communities they were equally up to more shenanigan's. I know heaven will be celebrating these two being together again.

Leslie/Ted, Larry/Debby, Billy/Debra, Steve/Janet - I know your hearts are heavy and hurting. May God's grace give you peace and comfort as you morn the loss of your dad. Much love,

Pam (Sidwell) & Tom Hutson

What a wonderful Man. When I first started in the construction industry I worked a lot with him. He was always willing to help in any way he could. He made my job a lot easier. He was always pleasant and available. My condolences to the entire family.
