Keep your chins up and know that he is not hurting any more and is with grandpa looking down over us all. I will miss him and his silly text to me very much. “ What I'm feeling right now is hard to put into words. Billy was such a funny guy to be around and I am so sorry he died. So many good times to remember, like our ride home from the Ozarks when we saw the "Leo" "Nard" truck and the "Arapahoe" indians pronounciation and the pitstop in Leesburg. He touched so many lives and will remain in my heart. My love and support will always be here for you Tina, Bubbles and C.A. Bill is resting in peace with no pain. Love always,

“ We were so sorry to hear the sad news about Billy. We saw Billy a few weeks ago, after many years, and enjoyed talking and catching up with him and Mickey so much. It brought us back to the "old" days and wonderful memories of fun times spent together with the family. Those times will remain with us always as Billy will remain in our hearts. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to all of his family. May God give you peace, strength, and courage in the days to come. Love, Dave & Cherri Dietrich

“ Most of us can count our true friends on one hand.Well Young Bill was one of those people to me. I have enjoyed his company for at least 35 years.The greatest thing about Bill was his honesty, He was honest with other people and most importantly to Himself.I truly believe Bill is in heaven now.He will be missed but never forgotten at the Tripp house. Tina, Austin, and Cassidy our heart and prayers go out to you in your time of sorrow.Please allow us to help you if there is anything we can do.

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving yearsbecause you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain,then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author) © Copyright 1998
