“ I have a picture of my mind of my father, Paul Delo, and his best friend Clyde meeting in heaven. Dad's at the Old Fisherman's Crossing when Clyde walks up:

"Clyde! What are you doing here so early?"

Clyde says, "It's all your fault."

“ Karen, my prayers are with you, the girls, and the grandchildren. What a deep loss for all of you. I will always remember Clyde for his wit and love of everything outdoors.

Peace to all of you,

Cheryl
