“ Mr. Dunehew was my favorite teacher as he taught us science at cedar hill elementary. A few years ago, I was able to visit with him and Jane and enjoyed it. Mr. Dunehew left a positive impact on this earth. God Bless his family.

“ Loved this man. Taught with him for several years at good ole CHMS. Loved his laugh, the way he arched his eyebrow, his index finger raised and his "that reminds me of a story" quote, his "cheap science" lessons in the teachers' lounge at lunch, of course his infamous fried grasshopper lessons, popping popcorn snacks in the lounge, his honey and bee lessons, and participating in the Channel 9 PBS fundraiser that he organized (we almost got kicked out of the White Castle in Maplewood afterwards because of his "only nerds eat inside White Castle" comment.) Good times! Will miss him so much! He was one of a kind!

“ One of my very favorite teacher. (although there were many at Cedar Hill Elementary.) One of the many nice things I remember about Mr.Dunehue is his kindness and his love for science. He always made learning fun! I would have loved to have run into him later in life, sounds like he was truly a remarkable man. ❤️
