April 5, 1930 - May 4, 2019

Bonnie graduated from high school in Augusta Arkansas and eventually settled in House Springs MO after marriage. Her friends and neighbors remember before her health declined, she sold vegetables and strawberries from her garden at a road side stand at her home. She enjoyed keeping her yard and flower beds impeccable. Her most joy, however, came from being surrounded by family at meals where she would impart love through words of wisdom and advice to her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She left each of them a legacy of strength, high work ethic, strong faith, and greatest of all —love.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her husband R. A. Grayson, grandson Luke Grayson, brothers Sonny Covington and Carlos Covington, Sister in law Mary Sue Covington, brothers in law John Frasier Ashby and Donnie Hayes, and aunt Loni Paul.

“ I took care of Bonnie about 12 or 13 years ago for a year or so. She was the sweetest woman and just loved to talk. She loved for me to make her my lemon meringue pie, I think I ended up making one almost every week 😊, I grew close to the family during that time, Bro Rich was the preacher at our church and that is how I met the rest of the family. I will always treasure those times I was able to spend with Bonnie. I became sick for quite a few years and wasn't able to visit her anymore and I will not be able to attend her funeral because of my illness but, Bonnie and the rest of the family know how much I love them and I am so glad that she is not suffering anymore. I will never forget her sweet smile everyday when I would get to her house, Rest In Peace Bonnie and we know we will see you again someday when we get to Heaven.
