“ Brad love for his family, his dear wife Carla and their children. How he was so involved with the Boy Scouts with his son. The main thing i guess is how he always made his family his first priority. His kindness and concern for others is what made Brad the man he was. His concern for our mother, which was his grandmother by marriage was evident always when he was with her. Rest in peace Brad and we will see you soon just over in the promised land.

“ I'll miss talking about art, video games and movies with Brad and miss seeing Vada and him exchange winks and finger gun kapows at each other. He was always a friendly face and helping hand at any event wether it was school or scout related. Every time I saw him he had a smile to share and I think that says a lot about what kind of person he was. Rest in Peace Brad.
