“ I already miss you. I remember you calling me to find out how to get to the house so you could come by. 45 minutes later you call again, from cedar Hill lost. Once you finally got there you swore you'd never go so far into the boons again, and kept complaining about how country it was. But you came over again and again.. You were just a bright light, so cute, happy, full of energy and love. I will miss you so much. I know you tried. I'm proud of how hard you tried. It's not your fault. There's no one to blame. Just an emptiness where you were. I love you
