“ I met Brian while working at Rug Doctor. He was one in a kind. Out going but private all in one. His children where his idol back then I'm positive his grandchildren where just the same now.. I believe his spot on the lake was his place of happiness as well. So saddened to read about this loss. May your spirt live on forever in our hearts and souls. My ❤️ goes out to his family during this difficult time. REST IN PARADISE YOU WHERE A HARD WORKER WHO LOVED BIG..

“ I knew Brian and his family for about 40 years. Truly a good guy. Although I had not seen him in a long while I have many happy memories of him. Lived down the street from him in Cedar Hill and worked with him and his mom at Rug Doctor. I remember his mom and dad let me and my husband to his first concert. He introduced me to the joy of Blues Hockey. May he Rest in Peace. Prayers for comfort to his children and grandchildren.
