“ To Brian's family: I am so very sorry for your loss. Cling to your happy memories. I have so many awesome memories of Brian starting when he was a child, with him riding his bike to the Post Office to help his Uncle Rich and I find his house, up to and including wonderful memories in Branson. Chris, I will never forget going to Silver Dollar City with you and John, Brian, Melissa and Jackson, and Mandi and her crew...so fun! And it wasn't that long ago that I chatted with Brian in Branson outside the condos. I am sure this is also difficult for you, Mandi, losing your only sibling. And Cheryl, even though I didn't know you, you must be wonderful for Brian to have loved you! All of you, please accept my deepest sympathy at this difficult time.

Lucy, thank you so much for the kind words. Pictures and videos of our Branson trip come up quite often in my photo memories. That was a great family vacation with all of us. With love, Melissa and Jackson
