I remember swimming in their ",lake" that was the entrance to the parents and grandparents estate. Bruce was always a positive guy who always was there for me. “ My memories of Bruce were of his great sense of humor, kindness and gentlemanly ways. I fondly remember us singing together in choir and, he had a wonderful voice. Though my heart is very saddened by Bruce's passing, I know he is with the Lord and that as a brother in Christ, I'll see him again one day. My deepest condolences to Lois and to her and Bruce's children and grandchildren. My prayers for God's comfort to you will be ongoing in the days ahead.
