six (6) great-nieces and great-nephews, Taylor, Natalie, Naomi, Amelia, Matthew, Lilly, along with numerous extended family and friends.

Bruce was one of the kindest men you would ever meet. He was sweet and had a pure heart of gold. He was a devoted brother and friend. He took care of his family and the people around him. He would give up anything he had to help someone in need. Bruce enjoyed fishing and eagle watching. He loved drag racing at Gateway, when it was the original Gateway. Bruce was a talented mechanic and loved Dodge cars. He and his twin brother, Brian became known as “the Dodge Boys”. He and his family cherish memories of their childhood at Lake of the Ozarks. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
