“ *Byron was a great partner at work. He always supported me. He was a fierce team player and cared deeply for the men and women he worked to protect in the oil field. So many good times were had just talking with Byron. His booming laughter will be something i will never forget. He was a great friend and confidant. His advice in life struggles and guidance in God will always be cherished. I will miss him. He is a man we should all look up to. I wish his family speedy healing in this time of loss.
