“ I miss Mike so much, we would try to get together once a month, sometimes we'd go to lunch, most of the we just sat in my living room and talk about all the things we loved. We'd talk about music, which we both loved and books, we both read a lot and a lot of the same books. Had a lot of the same taste in music, although he leaned more towards country music, I'm a Prog head. We talked about scripture, God, family, kids and Grandkids.
Unfortunately I never got to meet Cindi and unfortunately I'm not gonna be able to make it to the service. I really miss you Brother.

“ Over 40 years ago I met Mike at DePaul hospital where we both worked. Always had been impressed with his kindness and compassion and love for both others and God. I was fortunate enough to have been back home in St Louis in 2022 and to meet up with Mike again. I'm so sorry for the loss of an amazing man and brother. May God bring you his peace and comfort at this time. Bob Cento
